

Irrevocable SCJ Decision: the Ministry of Interior will pay damages for disclosure of personal data to the separatist regime

Vitalie Eriomenco's family will receive damages of 192,000 lei from the Ministry of Interior for unlawful disclosure of his and his family's personal data to illegal structures from Tiraspol.

The Supreme Court of Justice ruled as inadmissible the recourse of the Ministry of Interior and of Tretiacov Gheorghe. Thus the decision of the Court of Center district of Chisinau of 23 April 2014, stating a violation of the rights under Art.8 of the European Convention on Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and the Law on the protection of personal data.

Recall that Police Colonel Gheorghe Tretiacov ordered to provide personal data about six Eriomenco family members, including Vitalie Eriomenco, illegally deprived of freedom by the regime in Tiraspol, to an entity of the separatist regime in Tiraspol.

In this context, Promo-LEX welcomes the decision of the Supreme Court of Justice and calls on the constitutional authorities to respect the laws of the Republic of Moldova and to avoid similar situations of violating their citizens' rights by providing information and personal data to illegal entities.
